 Kammie Towey begins her eleventh season as the head women's lacrosse coach at Wilkes University for the 2017 season. Over her first nine seasons, she has compiled a 73-82 record, including a school-record 13-3 mark in 2014. Over the past four seasons, Towey's teams have gone 52-23.

The Lady Colonels finished 12-5 overall last season earning its third straight MAC Freedom postseason berth in the process. First-Team All-MAC Freedom selection Madeleine Brownsey also led the league in goals for the second consecutive year.

The past five seasons (2012, 2013, 2014, 2015 & 2016) have seen several individual and team records fall under Towey's watch. In 2014, Ford graduated as the school's all-time leading scorer with 294 points and 214 goals. Goalkeeper Cassie Cronin finished her career as the school's all-time saves leader (533) and minutes played (2479:50) in 2012, while Smith set the mark for single season draw controls per-game (5.76) and shot percentage (61.2). Smith also became the school's all-time assist leader in 2014 finishing her junior campaign with 88 career helpers. Smith then broke Ford's career marks in points and goals in 2015. Brownsey broke the school's all-time goals mark (270) during her senior season in 2016.

Towey earned her Bachelors of Arts degree in Sports Management from Pfeiffer University in 2004, where she was also a member of the women's lacrosse squad.

Ralston Athletic Complex

The Ralston Athletic Complex is currently undergoing a three-phase, $3 million renovation that has added a synthetic turf field, lights, and press box to the stadium. Included in the complex is Munson Field House; Schmidt Stadium for football, soccer, field hockey and lacrosse; a stadium for softball; tennis courts; a grass soccer field and two football practice fields.
